12.6.1 The Client is deemed to have accepted the work executed as being in accordance with the Contract unless within 30 days of completion the Client shall have notified Heath Electrical Services MK Limited that it claims such work is not in accordance with the Contract.

12.7. Heath Electrical Services MK Limited employees are utilised on any assignment on the understanding that the Client will not, by its agent or otherwise, and whether for itself or the benefit of any other person or organisation, offer employment, or employ Heath Electrical Services MK Limited staff, or otherwise induce staff to leave their employment with Heath Electrical Services MK Limited. This applies to all levels of Heath Electrical Services MK Limited staff involved in dealing with the Client during any negotiation, assignment or ongoing work, and within twenty-four months of completion of any Client project in which they have been involved. The damages for breach are set at the contractual charge-out rate for the staff member for a period of thirteen standard weeks.

12.8. In order to protect our staff and the reputation of Heath Electrical Services MK Limited, any client that approaches our staff to carry out work or offer employment will have the remaining works cancelled with immediate effect regardless of which stage the works are finished. The Client will be invoiced the total or balance of the original project value; the remaining works will be classed as Aborted Appointments, so please refer to section 13 or 14. The Client will be informed not to contact us for any future works. Products/materials and workmanship that still have warranty periods will be rendered Invalid.

12.9. It is the policy of Heath Electrical Services MK Limited to give the greatest importance to the Health and Safety of its employees and contractors and considers this duty to be a management responsibility greater than that of any other function. Every effort must, therefore, be made by the Client (where work is carried out under this Contract) to comply with all Health and Safety legislation.

12.10. In order to protect our employees, they are instructed not to enter an environment they consider to be unsafe, dangerous to health or inoperable for any reason and are instructed to withdraw from the premises and report the problem to head office. In this event, the customer will be charged reasonable losses and costs of the originally agreed Contract fee as an abortion fee. If the service is rescheduled after the property is made safe, the Client will be charged a fee equivalent to 50% of the original agreed Contract value.

12.11. The Client will ensure that all electrical appliances carrying high voltage shall be switched off or shall be in a safe condition during the performance of the Contract.

12.12. The Client will provide Heath Electrical Services MK Limited with full information about any hazards to health and safety that they may be reasonably expected to know of and will ensure that any contractors are informed before work commences or on first arriving at the premises to ensure that they can carry out their work safely.

12.13. The Client will ensure free and undisturbed access to the site/s during normal working hours (Monday to Friday 8am – 16.30pm).

12.14. It is the Client's responsibility to ensure that adequate information pertaining to the operation of any gate entry, alarm or other such security system is provided as Heath Electrical Services MK Limited will not be liable for triggering the alarm on any such system.

12.15. The Client will provide, free of charge, all lighting, heating, hot water, electricity and any other facilities which may reasonably be required by Heath Electrical Services MK Limited.

12.16. The Client will provide, free of charge, suitable and safe accommodation for such equipment and materials as Heath Electrical Services MK Limited wishes to leave on the Client's premises.
